

Name: _____

Chapter 14 - CONTINUING CONFLICT - pages 341-346

Hopes for Peace

1. United Nations – organization formed after WW2 in which nations of the world work together to solve problems
2. Cold War – period in which the US and the Soviet Union threatened to use nuclear weapons against each other
3. Iron Curtain – term used for border that separated Communist countries of Eastern Europe during the Cold War
4. Truman Doctrine – policy stating that the United States would use its power to stop the overthrow of a free country
5. Berlin Airlift – program in which United States sent planes loaded with food and supplies to West Berlin, Germany
6. Berlin Wall – wall built by the Soviet Union that Separated the Communist and the free parts of Berlin, Germany
7. National Security Act – bill that established plans for the national security and creation of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA)
8. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) – security organization that gathers information from other countries and provides it to the president of the United States
9. atheism – false belief that God does not exist

Name: _____

Chapter 14 - CONTINUING CONFLICT - pages 341-346

Hopes for Peace

Fill in the Blanks

1. United Nations - organization formed after WW2 in which nations of the world work together to _____ problems
2. Cold War - period in which the US and the Soviet Union threatened to use _____ weapons against each other
3. Iron Curtain - term used for border that _____ Communist countries of Eastern Europe during the Cold War
4. Truman Doctrine - policy stating that the United States would use its _____ to _____ the overthrow of a _____ country
5. Berlin Airlift - program in which United States sent _____ loaded with food and supplies to West Berlin, Germany
6. Berlin Wall - _____ built by the Soviet Union that Separated the Communist and the _____ parts of Berlin, Germany
7. National Security Act - _____ that established plans for the national security and creation of the Central Intelligence Agency (_____)
8. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) - security organization that gathers information from _____ countries and provides it to the _____ of the United States
9. atheism - _____ belief that God _____ exist

Name: _____

Chapter 14 - CONTINUING CONFLICT - pages 341-346

Hopes for Peace

Iron Curtain

