The Amazing and Interesting Life of John the Apostle.

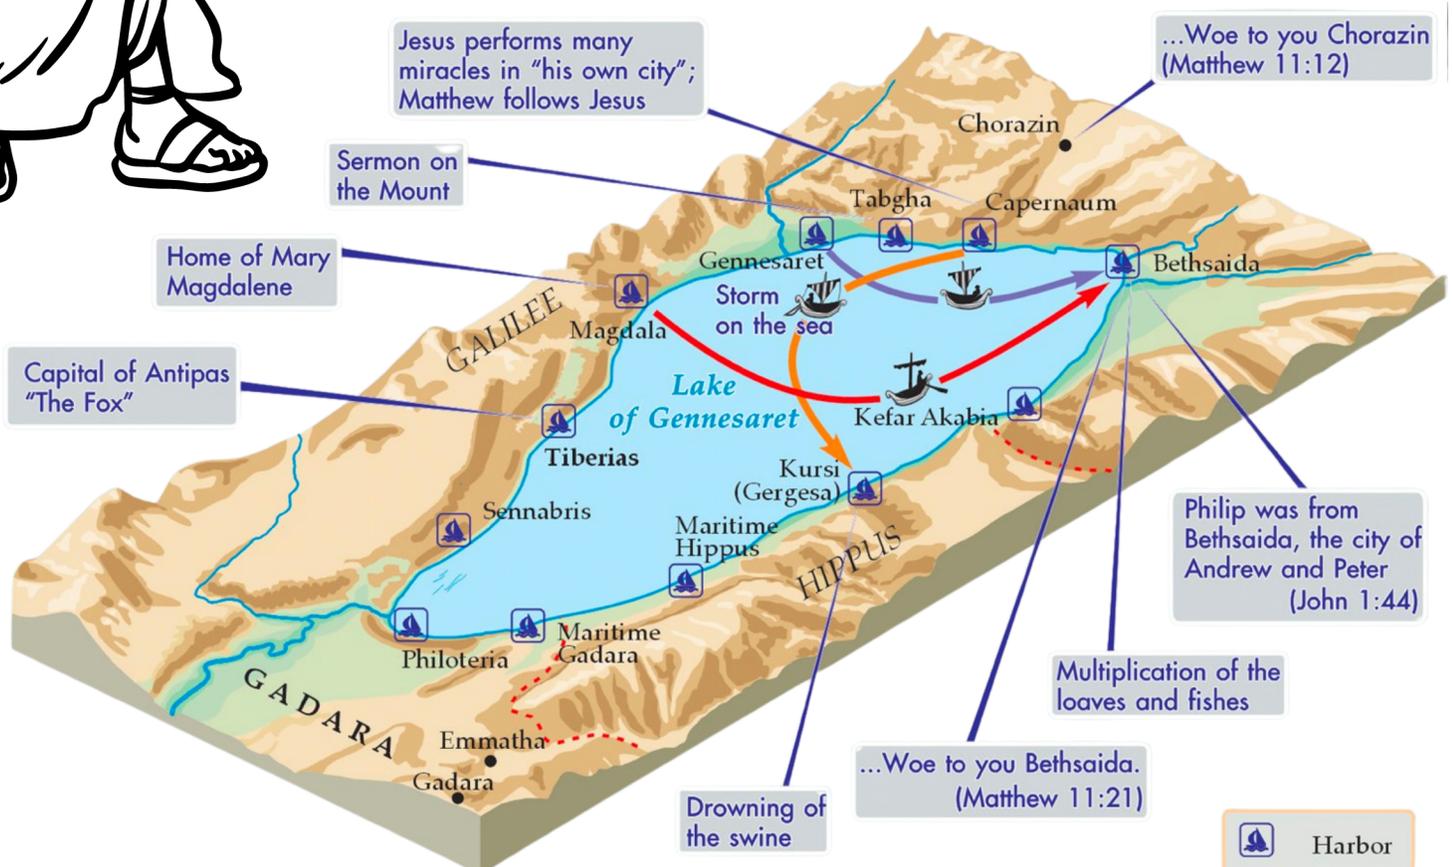

John the Apostle, also known as John the Beloved, was likely born around 6 AD. He was born in Bethsaida, Galilee, Roman Empire. His parents were Zebedee and Salome, and he was the brother of James, another of Jesus' apostles.

According to John 1:44, Bethsaida was my hometown and where of the apostles Peter, Andrew, and Philip were from as well.

In Mark 8:22-26, Jesus restored a blind man's sight at a place just outside the ancient village of Bethsaida.

In Luke 9:10-11, Jesus miraculously feeds five thousand near Bethsaida.

AD 85—90 is an accepted time for the writing of the Gospel of John.

Purpose of Writing: “But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name (John 20:31)

John emphasized Jesus Christ as “the Son of God,” fully God and fully man.

A false doctrine was circulating at that time which taught the “Christ-spirit” came upon the human Jesus at His baptism and left Him at the crucifixion.

And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand” (John 10:28).

“Jesus said to him, ‘Have I been with you so long, and yet you have not known Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father; so how can you say, “Show us the Father”?’(John 14:9).

Some of miracles and historical accounts, such as the raising of Lazarus, are found only in John.

The Gospel of John often gives the reason behind events mentioned in the other gospels.

John discusses the approaching ministry of the Holy Spirit after Jesus’ ascension

James and John were known for their fiery temper and were given the nickname "Sons of Thunder" by Jesus

The Bible doesn't record his death. There's a tradition that he lived a very long life, and that Jesus granted him a wish to remain in the flesh until Christ's return, which he would be able to witness.

Early Christian writers like Tertullian in the 2nd century say John was thrown into boiling oil but was unharmed.

John was exiled to Patmos where he received the book of Revelation which tells what will happen in the future, this is the only book of the Bible that comes with the promise of a blessing for anyone who reads it.

John 15:7

John 16:23-24

In that day you will no longer ask Me anything. Truly, truly, I tell you, whatever you ask the Father in My name, He will give you.

Ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be complete.

Matthew 7:7-8

James 1:5-6

Now if any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him.

But he must ask in faith, without doubting, because he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind.

Does this mean that Jesus is a magical genie that will grant all your wishes when you ask?

No, instead, the Bible emphasizes that God is a loving Father who answers prayers according to His will, not as a divine wish-granter. While the Bible encourages prayer and promises that God hears and answers, it also highlights that His answers may not always align with our desires.

Just like your mom or dad won't say "yes" everytime you ask for something, your much-wiser and way-more-powerful, Daddy in Heaven, - God - will not say "yes" to everything you ask for.

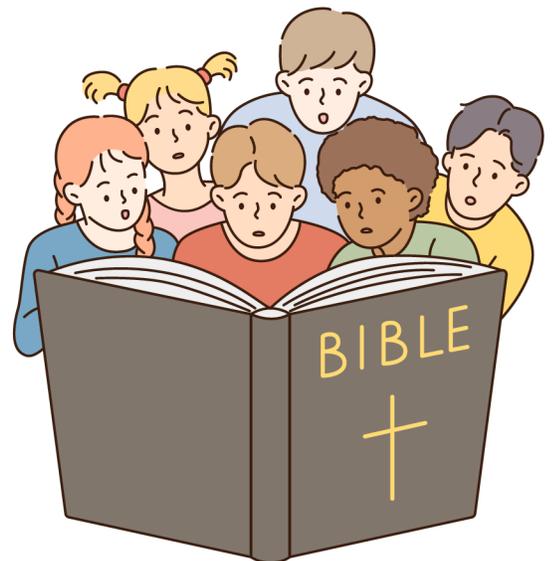

Do you think He will say "yes" if you ask Him to help you read your Bible everyday?

Do you think He will say "yes" if you ask Him to help you do something the FIRST time you are asked?

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Light, a fundamental aspect of our universe, is both a wave and a particle, exhibiting properties of both energy and matter. It travels at the fastest speed possible in a vacuum, 299,792,458 meters per second, and is responsible for our ability to see, as well as many natural phenomena like rainbows and photosynthesis.

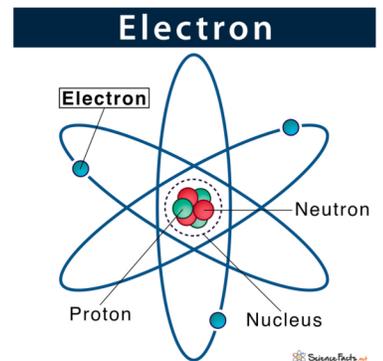

Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

Light comes from various sources, both natural and artificial. The sun is the primary natural source of light for Earth, providing the energy for life. Other natural sources include stars, lightning, and bioluminescence. Artificial sources of light include light bulbs, lasers, and fire

And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness.

Electrons don't really "come from" a specific place in the way we often think of things appearing. Instead, they are fundamental particles that are already present in all atoms, and they can be moved around. In the context of electricity, electrons are already present in the wires and components of a circuit. When a voltage is applied, these electrons are simply moved, creating an electrical current.

Do you think that Jesus looked much different in heaven than he did when he was on earth?

When Jesus came back to earth, he was in His glorified body

His body had new abilities:

While physical, his glorified body also had new abilities, such as appearing and disappearing at will, and perhaps transcending physical limitations.

In several accounts, Jesus ate with his disciples, proving he had a physical form.

The resurrected Jesus had scars from the crucifixion wounds, demonstrating that it was the same physical body

"Are you the Prophet?" He answered, "No."

22 Finally they said, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

33 And I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.'

Philip the Apostle, one of Jesus' twelve disciples, was a fisherman from Bethsaida, according to the Bible. He worked alongside Andrew and Peter.

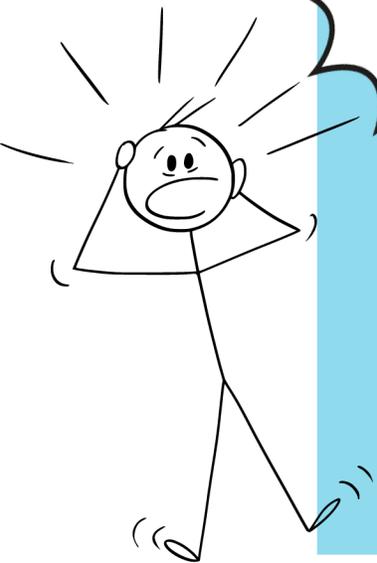

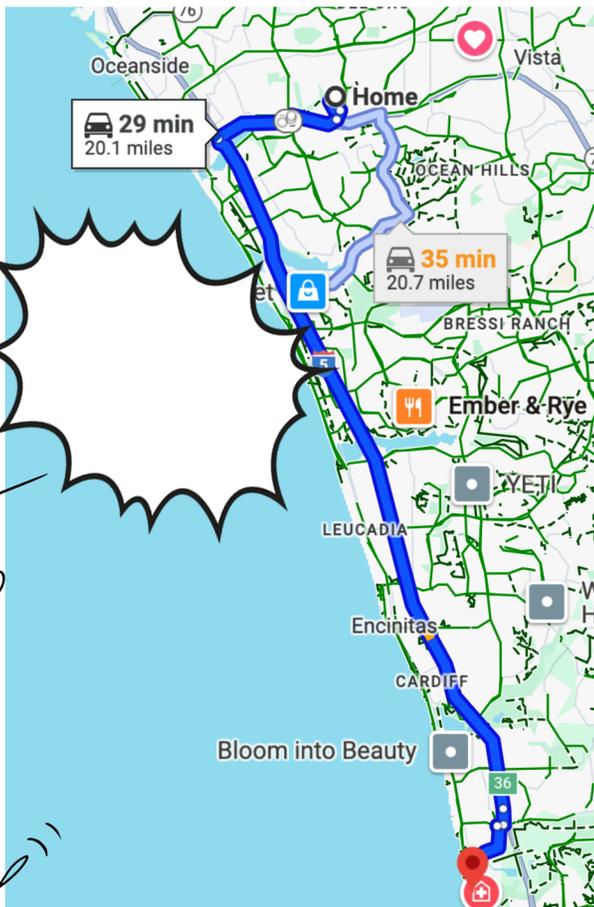

Later, after becoming a disciple, he is also known for his evangelistic work as one of the seven deacons in the early church, preaching and performing miracles in Samaria and baptizing an Ethiopian eunuch

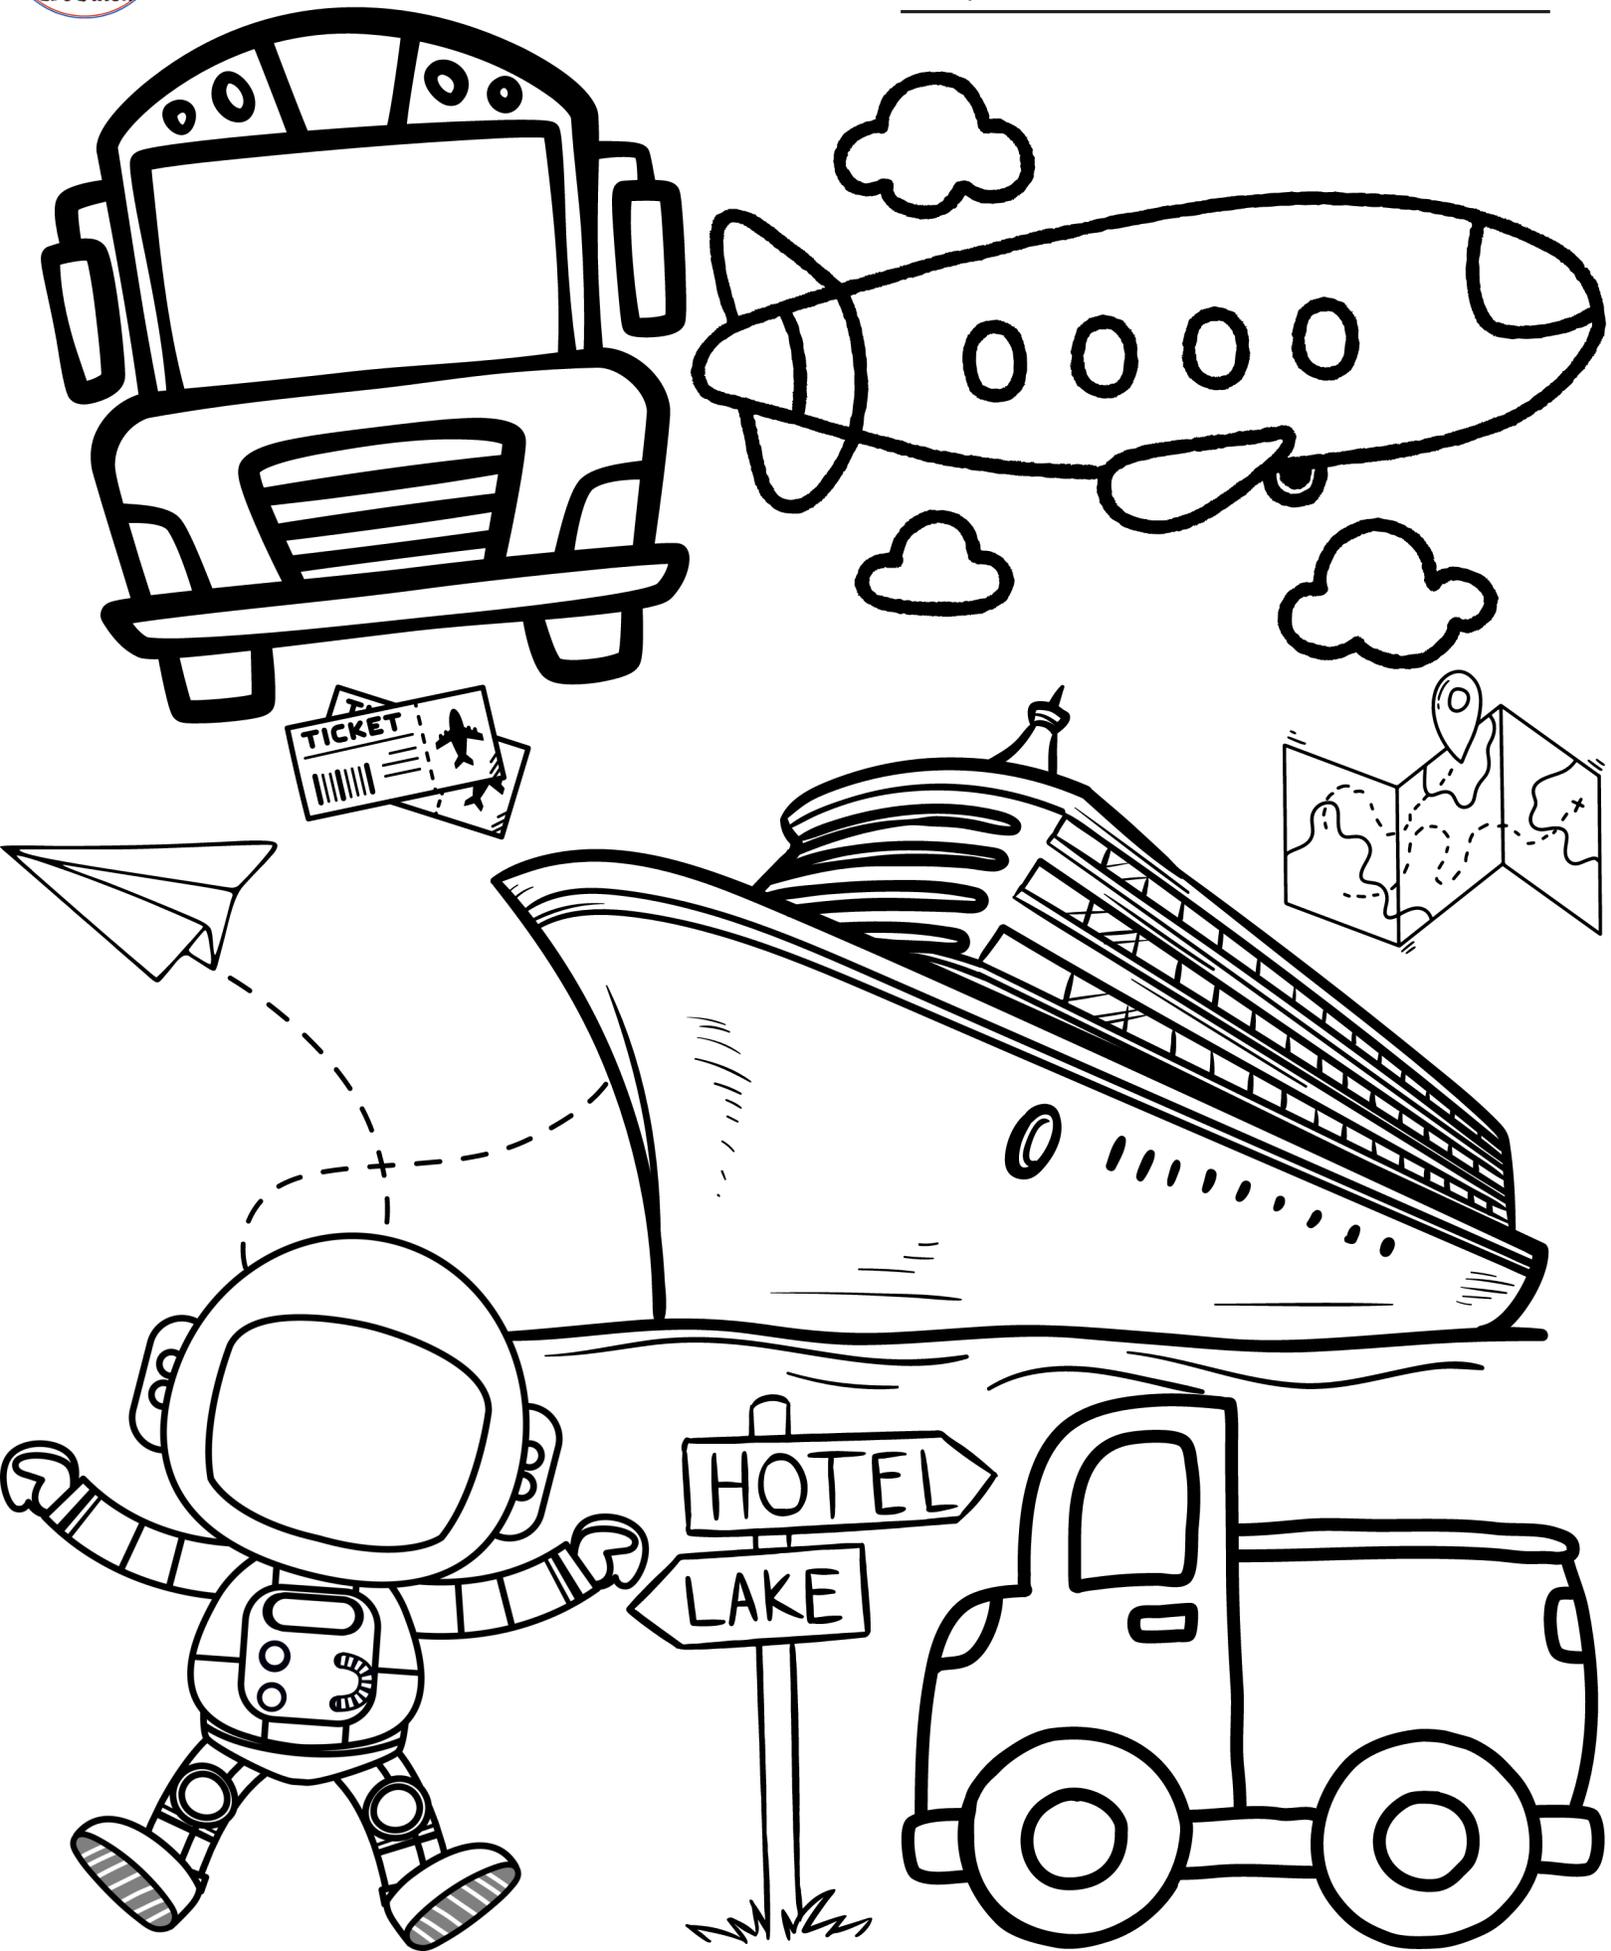

Acts 8, the Spirit of the Lord miraculously transported Philip, from meeting an Ethiopian eunuch to the city of Azotus (Ashdod).

This relocation is described as the Spirit "carrying Philip away" after the eunuch's baptism.

God is also present above the ladder, speaking to Jacob.

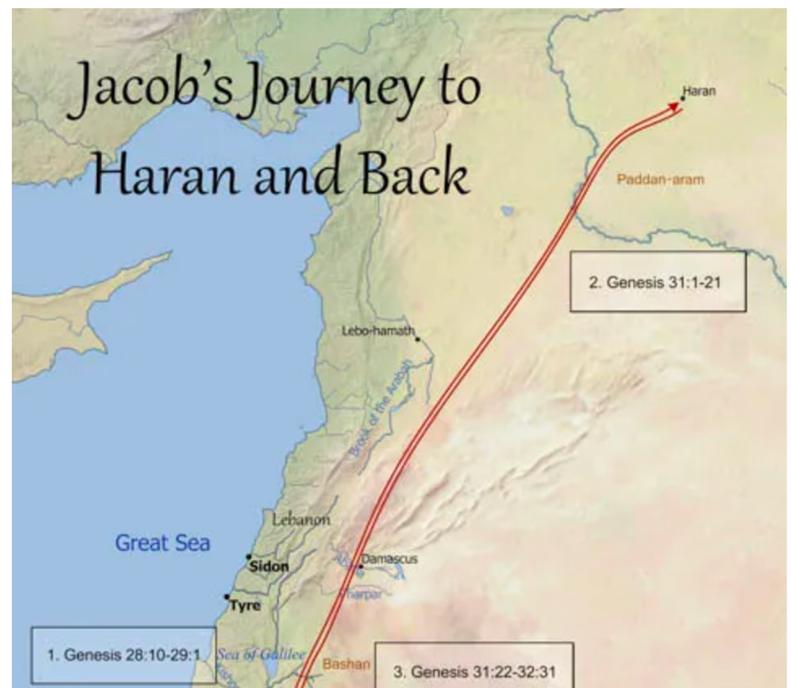

Genesis 28

Nathanael was from Cana in Galilee.

Cana, is a town in Galilee, Israel, known in the New Testament as the location where Jesus performed his first miracle: turning water into wine at a wedding feast. It is also mentioned as the hometown of the disciple Nathanael (John 21:2)

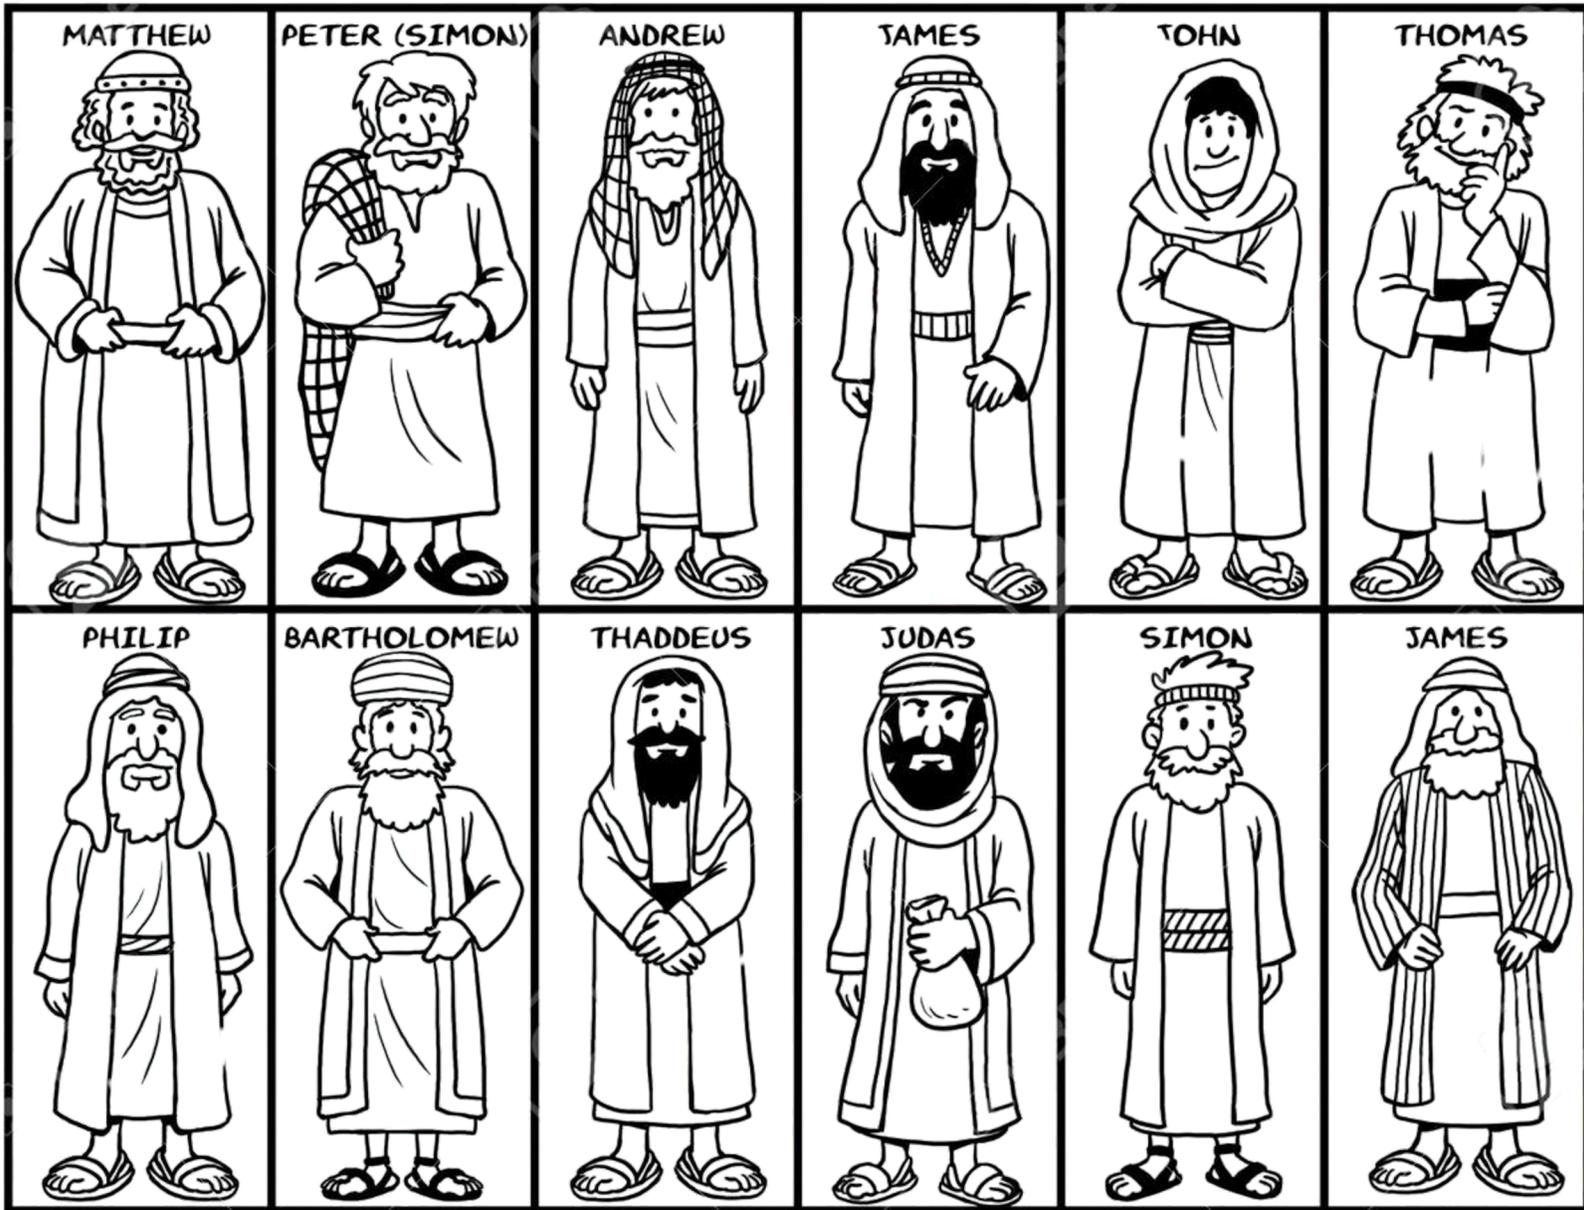

Nathanael was a close friend of Philip, who introduced him to Jesus.

Nathanael was probably a farmer?

- The Galilee region was known for its agricultural, so people from Cana were likely farmers, working in vineyards and olive groves.
- Ancient Israel, including Cana, had a thriving wine industry, and wine was a staple of the diet and a significant part of the culture and economy.
- The local economy likely involved other agricultural products, such as wheat, barley, figs, pomegranates, and dates.

Miracle - an extraordinary event, surpassing natural or human capabilities, by divine power, a sign of God's presence and purpose

Jesus Changes Water Into Wine

1 On the third day a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there,

2 and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding.

3 When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no more wine."

4 "Woman, why do you involve me?" Jesus replied. "My hour has not yet come."

5 His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

6 Nearby stood six stone water jars, the kind used by the Jews for ceremonial washing, each holding from twenty to thirty gallons.

7 Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water"; so they filled them to the brim.

8 Then he told them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet."

Did Mary know that Jesus could perform miracles?

What did Jesus tell his mother, Mary?

What is a miracle?

How many water jars were nearby the wedding?

They did so,

10 and said, "Everyone brings out the choice wine first and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink; but you have saved the best till now."

11 What Jesus did here in Cana of Galilee was the first of the signs through which he revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

12 After this he went down to Capernaum with his mother and brothers and his disciples. There they stayed for a few days.

13 When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover, Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

14 In the temple courts he found people selling cattle, sheep and doves, and others sitting at tables exchanging money.

15 So he made a whip out of cords, and drove all from the temple courts, both sheep and cattle; he scattered the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.

16 To those who sold doves he said, "Get these out of here! Stop turning my Father's house into a market!"

17 His disciples remembered that it is written: "Zeal for your house will consume me."

18 The Jews then responded to him, "What sign can you show us to prove your authority to do all this?"

In the Bible, Passover commemorates the Exodus of the Israelites from slavery in Egypt, with the "passing over" of the death angel sparing their firstborn, and is observed for seven days

Jerusalem was expected to be heavily populated with pilgrims during Passover, the time when Jesus is said to have overturned the tables in the temple, with estimates suggesting a significant increase in the city's population.

During Passover, money changers exchanged foreign coins for Jewish currency, often at very high rates rates, and also sold sacrificial animals for too much money.

Why do you think that this make Jesus upset?

Should Passover be a time to make money or to worship Jesus?

Doves were sold to poor people who could not afford more expensive sacrifices for Passover. Do you think they were selling the doves fairly or unfairly. What would be an example of this in your current church?

Name: _____

19 Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and I will raise it again in three days."

20 They replied, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and you are going to raise it in three days?"

21 But the temple he had spoken of was his body.

22 After he was raised from the dead, his disciples recalled what he had said. Then they believed the scripture and the words that Jesus had spoken.

23 Now while he was in Jerusalem at the Passover Festival, many people saw the signs he was performing and believed in his name.

24 But Jesus would not entrust himself to them, for he knew all people.

25 He did not need any testimony about mankind, for he knew what was in each person.

Who did Jesus say would raise the temple in 3 days?

What temple was Jesus talking about?

Did Jesus fulfill his promise of self-resurrection?

Who saw the signs Jesus performed at Passover Festival?

John 3

Jesus Teaches Nicodemus

3 Now there was a Pharisee, a man named Nicodemus who was a member of the Jewish ruling council.

2 He came to Jesus at night and said, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God. For no one could perform the signs you are doing if God were not with him."

3 Jesus replied, "Very truly I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God unless they are born again."

4 "How can someone be born when they are old?" Nicodemus asked. "Surely they cannot enter a second time into their mother's womb to be born!"

Fair-I-See?

A Pharisee was a Jewish religious leader who believed in the resurrection, a belief that distinguished them from the Sadducees. They had a strict adherence to the law, traditions, and a belief in a coming Messiah, and are often Jesus' primary opponents.

What type of religion did Nicodemus practice?

Did Nicodemus know the Bible well?

Is it possible to read the Bible but not understand it?

What title did Nicodemus give Jesus?

What did Jesus say that Nicodemus didn't understand?

What is the difference between religion and faith?

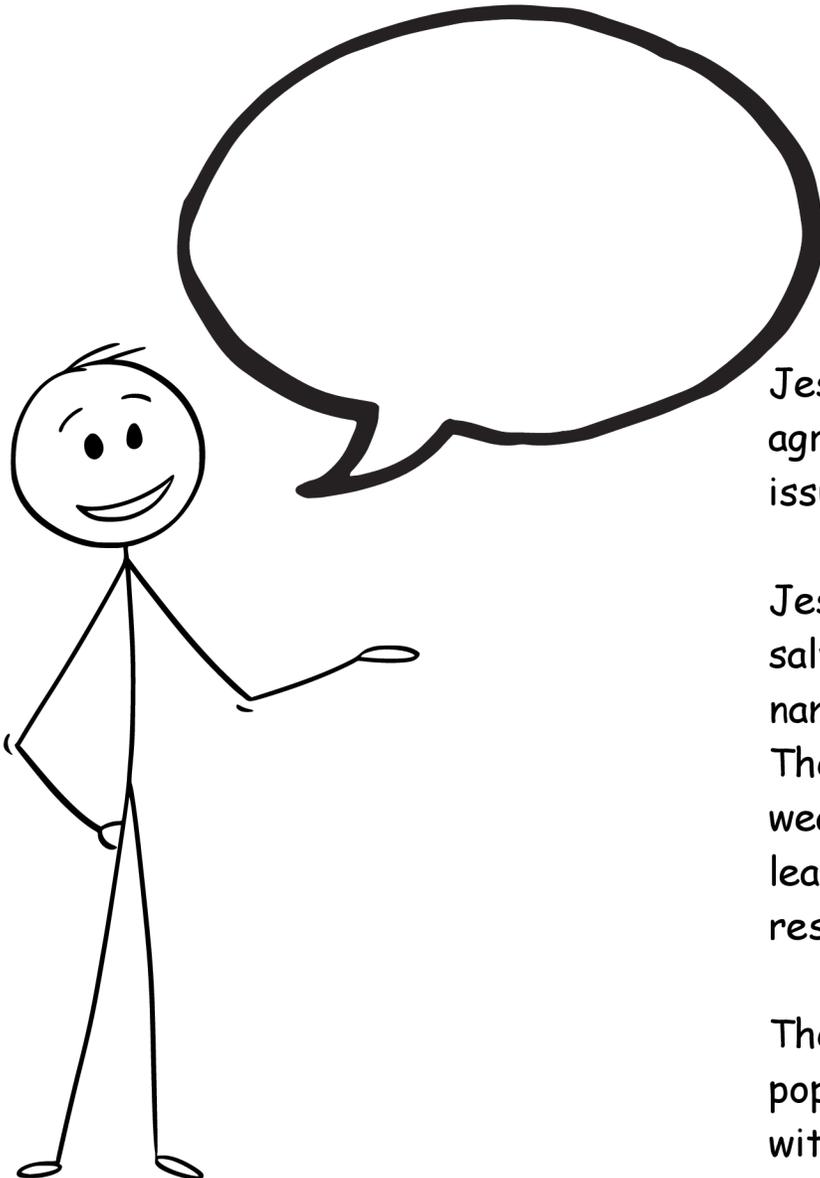

Name: _____

While "religion" and "faith" are words that are used as the same meaning, they represent different concepts.

Religion is a structured system of beliefs, practices, and rituals.

If you have ever been to another church - you may have seen some rituals that are very different from what we practice at the Mission Church?

Faith is a personal belief or trust in God.

Jesus and the Sadducees did not agree on core theological and social issues.

Jesus emphasized a message of salvation through faith through His name, and the hope of resurrection. The Sadducees, who were primarily wealthy and influential religious leaders, rejected the idea of resurrection.

They focused on maintaining their popularity through their close ties with Roman authorities.

Name: _____

5 Jesus answered, "Very truly I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless they are born of water and the Spirit.

Jesus uses the wind as a metaphor for the work of the Spirit, stating that just as we hear the wind but cannot see its origin or destination

6 Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit.

7 You should not be surprised at my saying, 'You must be born again.'

8 The wind blows wherever it pleases.

You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit."

The work of the Holy Spirit is mysterious and powerful, leading to spiritual rebirth.

9 "How can this be?" Nicodemus asked.

What did Jesus say was necessary for Salvation?

Flesh gives birth to flesh means what?

What does Spirit gives birth to Spirit mean?

What does "born again" mean?

Why is the work of the Holy Spirit is compared to wind?

Name: _____

"Born again" signifies a spiritual transformation where a person experiences a new life in Christ, becoming a child of God through faith in Jesus.

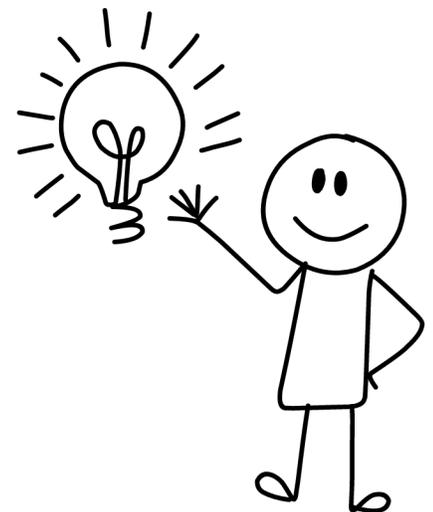

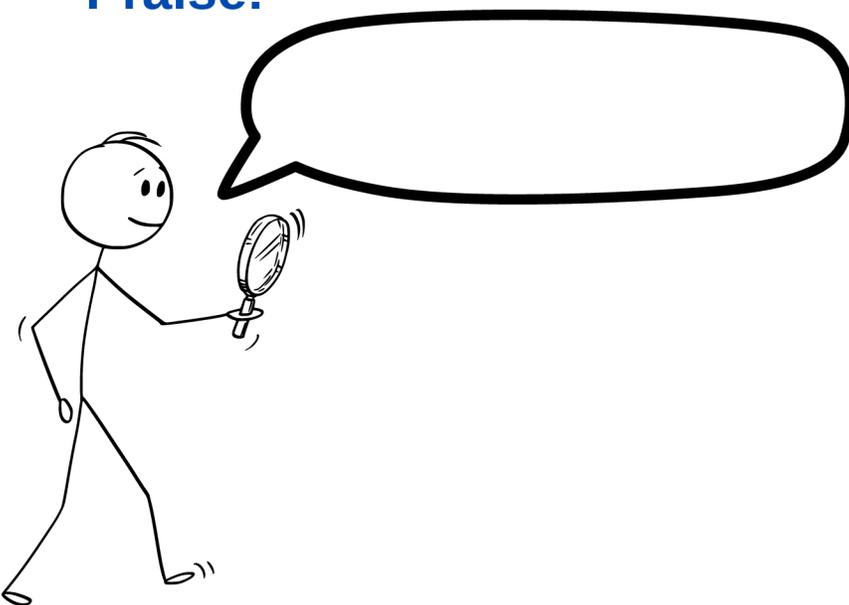

It's a spiritual rebirth, not a physical one, and is often described as a moment of repentance and acceptance of Jesus as Savior and Lord, leading to a changed heart and a desire to live according to God's will.

Repentance involves humbly seeking forgiveness from God, turning away from sin, and striving to live a more righteous life.

In what ways have you had to repent in your life?

A changed heart - this happens as a result of our choice to follow Jesus and love Him. He helps us change our heart - we do not do this alone.

Praise!

Name: _____

10 “You are Israel’s teacher,” said Jesus, “and do you not understand these things?”

11 Very truly I tell you, we speak of what we know, and we testify to what we have seen, but still you people do not accept our testimony.

12 I have spoken to you of earthly things and you do not believe; how then will you believe if I speak of heavenly things?

13 No one has ever gone into heaven except the one who came from heaven—the Son of Man.

14 Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up,

15 that everyone who believes may have eternal life in him.”

God instructed Moses to create a bronze serpent and lift it on a pole; anyone who looked at it would be healed from snakebites,

This symbolized Jesus's sacrifice and the path to eternal life for those who believe.

Why did Jesus ask people questions instead of accusing them?

Is it wise to ask questions when you are in a disagreement?

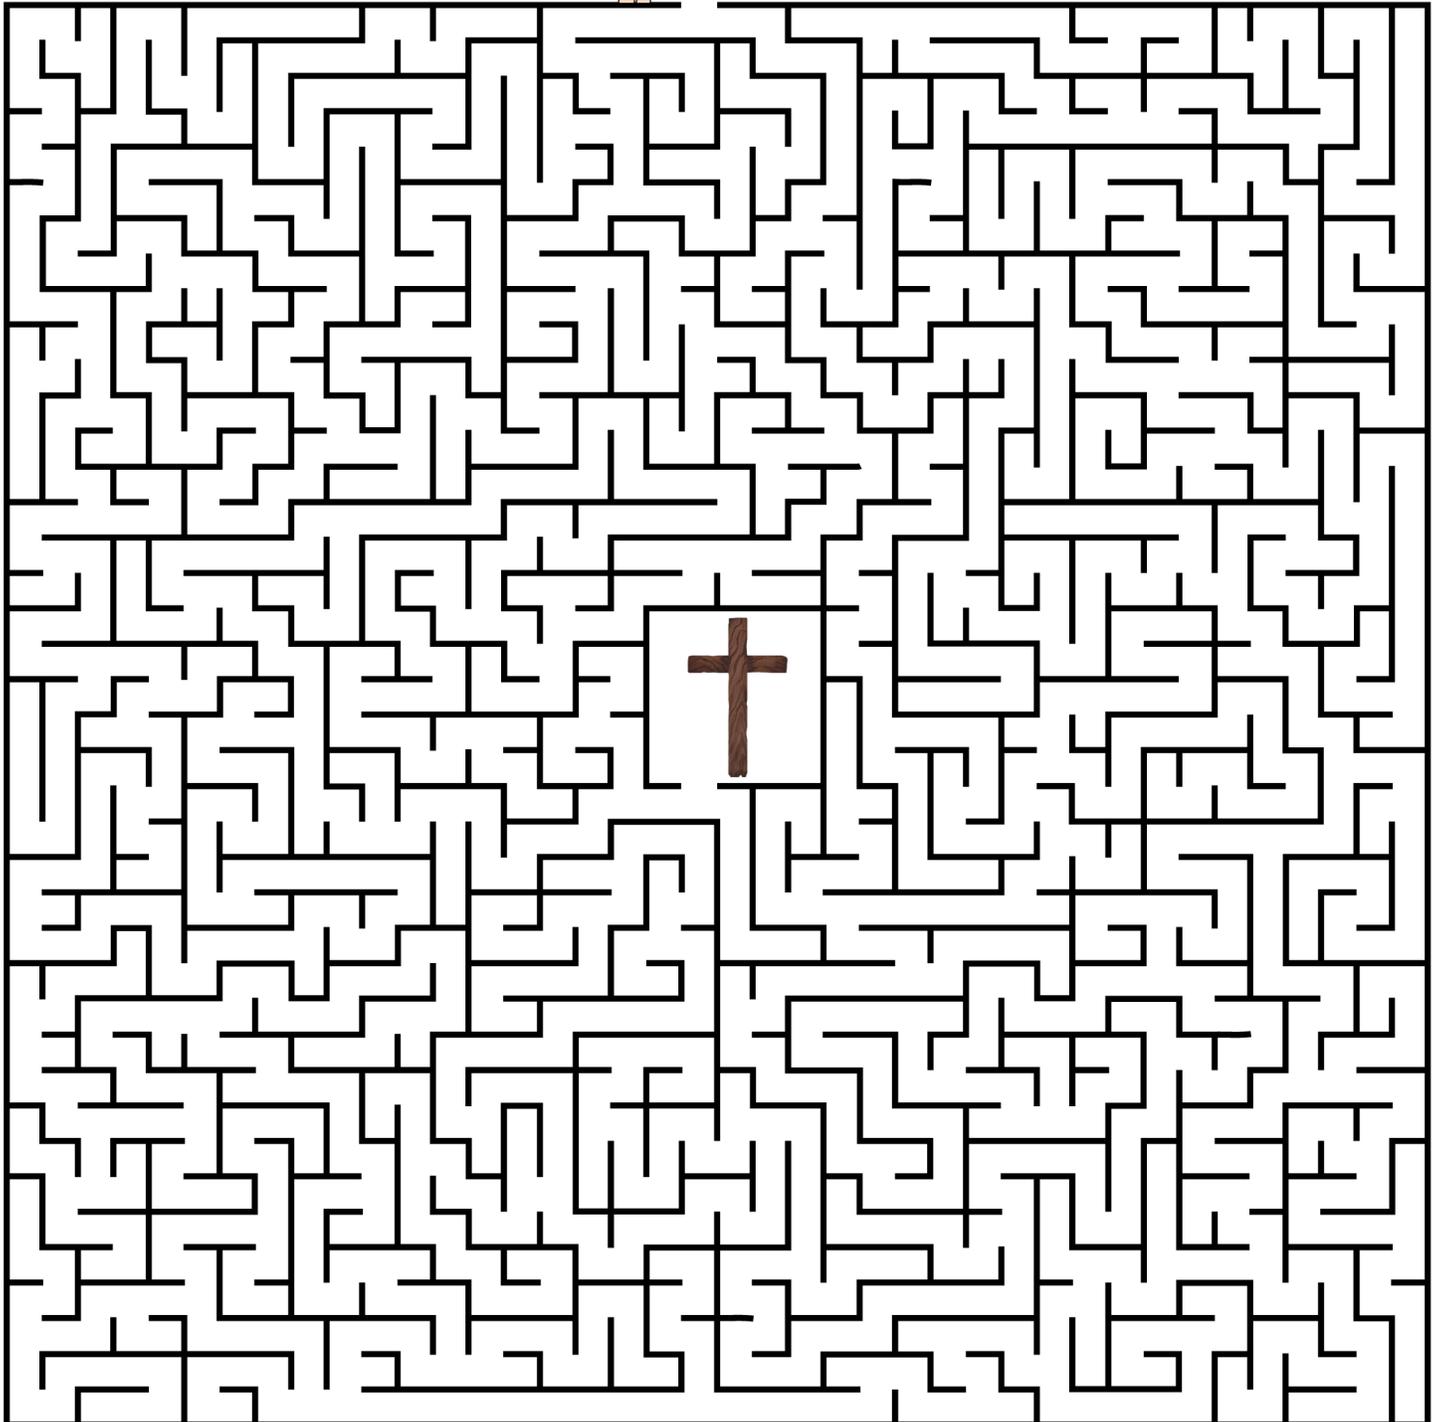

Did Nicodemus believe that Jesus came from Heaven?

What did Jesus mean when he said he must be “lifted up”?

How can you have eternal life in you?

Name: _____

Name: _____

16 For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

17 For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

18 Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because they have not believed in the name of God's one and only Son.

Condemned means a judicial act of declaring someone guilty, deserving punishment, and often associated with the consequence of sin and separation from God, but also with the promise of salvation through faith in Jesus Christ

19 This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but people loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil.

20 Everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come into the light for fear that their deeds will be exposed.

21 But whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what they have done has been done in the sight of God.

Who did Jesus say God loved?

Why did Jesus come into the world?

What does light do to darkness?

Why do people who do evil fear the light?

Why do people who live by the truth come into the light?

This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him

Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

"If you declare with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. "For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you profess your faith and are saved

I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand."

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me

22 After this, Jesus and his disciples went out into the Judean countryside, where he spent some time with them, and baptized.

23 Now John also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because there was plenty of water, and people were coming and being baptized.

24 (This was before John was put in prison.)

25 An argument developed between some of John's disciples and a certain Jew over the matter of ceremonial washing.

26 They came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, that man who was with you on the other side of the Jordan—the one you testified about—look, he is baptizing, and everyone is going to him."

The Torah contains a total of 613 commandments or mitzvah and around 10-15, are related to ritual washing, including hand washing and mikveh (ritual bath) practices.

What did the Torah accomplish for the Jews?

Is it healthy to be clean?

Can being clean earn your salvation, or help your Salvation?

Do you have to be baptized to earn your Salvation?

Who else was baptizing in the river with John the Baptist?

Name: _____

27 To this John replied, “A person can receive only what is given them from heaven.

28 You yourselves can testify that I said, ‘I am not the Messiah but am sent ahead of him.’

29 The bride belongs to the bridegroom. The friend who attends the bridegroom waits and listens for him, and is full of joy when he hears the bridegroom’s voice. That joy is mine, and it is now complete.

30 He must become greater; I must become less.”

This is a tremendously important principle that rules over everything in our lives.

A person cannot receive anything in their lives unless it comes from God. Every single thing that people get in their lives comes from God.

Is there anything you can do to earn your Salvation?

John declared that he is NOT who?

What does John feel after meeting his Messiah?

What does John say he must become?

Is John humble?

31 The one who comes from above is above all; the one who is from the earth belongs to the earth, and speaks as one from the earth. The one who comes from heaven is above all.

Jesus, who came from heaven, is superior to all earthly beings and speaks with heavenly authority,

32 He testifies to what he has seen and heard, but no one accepts his testimony.

33 Whoever has accepted it has certified that God is truthful.

34 For the one whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God gives the Spirit without limit.

While those who are "of the earth" speak with earthly understanding

35 The Father loves the Son and has placed everything in his hands.

36 Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life, but whoever rejects the Son will not see life, for God's wrath remains on them.

Who has the most authority on earth?

Why is God truthful?

To whom does God give the Spirit without limit?

God placed everything in whose hands?

What do you receive if you believe in the Son?

In Jesus' day, Jewish weddings involved a multi-stage process, including betrothal (a legally binding agreement), a waiting period, and a wedding ceremony and feast. The betrothal, or "erusin," was a formal commitment, while the actual wedding ceremony involved a procession, blessings, and a shared cup of wine, followed by a multi-day feast

Betrothal (Erusin):

Formal Agreement: The betrothal was a legally binding agreement between the groom's and bride's families, often arranged by the fathers.

Ketubah: A ketubah, or marriage contract, was drawn up, outlining the groom's obligations to his wife.

Dowry: The groom typically provided a dowry to the bride's family.

Shared Cup of Wine: The couple would share a cup of wine, symbolizing their commitment.

Waiting Period: A period of about a year followed, during which the bride prepared her wedding garments and the groom prepared their future home.

During the erusin period, the groom was to prepare a place for his bride, while the bride focused on her personal preparations: wedding garments, lamps, etc.

Although the bride knew to expect her groom after about a year, she did not know the exact day or hour. He could come earlier. It was the father of the groom who gave final approval for him to return to collect his bride.

For that reason, the bride kept her oil lamps ready at all times, just in case the groom came in the night, sounding the shofar (ram's horn) to lead the bridal procession to the home he had prepared for her.

Read Matthew 25:1–13

In Jewish weddings today, there are two cups of wine during the wedding ceremony. After the rabbi recites the betrothal blessings accompanying the first, the couple drinks from the cup. Since wine is associated with Kiddish, the prayer of sanctification recited on Shabbat (This is the Hebrew word for the Sabbath, the Jewish day of rest observed from Friday evening to Saturday evening. It's a time for rest, prayer, and family.)

In the season of Yeshua's end-time return, we should be careful to remain alert and prepared for His coming, since Yeshua was speaking to His disciples prophetically about the condition of the Church in the last days.

"Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven." (Matthew 7: 21)

The Wedding Ceremony:

Procession: The groom, accompanied by his friends, would go to the bride's home at night, often with torches or lamps.

Blessings: The couple would receive blessings, sometimes drawing from scripture.

Shared Cup of Wine: Another shared cup of wine marked the consummation of the marriage.

Chuppah: The ceremony often took place under a chuppah, a canopy symbolizing their new home.

Jesus Talks With a Samaritan Woman

1 Now Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard that he was gaining and baptizing more disciples than John—

2 although in fact it was not Jesus who baptized, but his disciples.

3 So he left Judea and went back once more to Galilee.

4 Now he had to go through Samaria.

5 So he came to a town in Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of ground Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

6 Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired as he was from the journey, sat down by the well. It was about noon.

Jews regarded Samaritanism as a heresy derived from the corrupt worship of Yahweh mixed up with the worship of the foreign gods brought into Samaria by the foreign settlers during the Assyrian deportations.

What does it mean that the woman was a Samaritan?

What does Pharisee mean?

Where did Jesus go?

Where did Jesus and His disciples have to journey through?

What place in Samaria was Jacob's well?

Name: _____

The controversy surrounding Jesus baptizing in John 4 stemmed from a combination of factors, including the Pharisees' concern about their own authority and the unique nature of John the Baptist's and Jesus' baptisms. The Pharisees, a Jewish religious group, likely viewed the popularity of Jesus' baptisms as a challenge to their leadership and a potential threat to the established religious order. Additionally, John's baptism was a unique form of repentance, and the Pharisees may have questioned its legitimacy and authority, especially since Jesus' ministry was growing rapidly.

Jews traveling between Judea and Galilee in ancient times typically had two main routes to choose from, both designed to avoid Samaria due to the animosity between the two regions. One route went west, following the Mediterranean coast, while the other went east, following the Jordan River.

Name: _____

The Samaritan woman, was from Samaria. She met Jesus at Jacob's well.

She likely gathered water at noon to avoid the social interactions and potential judgment of other women who typically collected water in the cooler parts of the day.

She had a complex past, having been married five times and currently living with a man who was not her husband, which made her an outcast in her community.

Have you ever done something sinful that made you an outcast?

What is the purpose of shame?

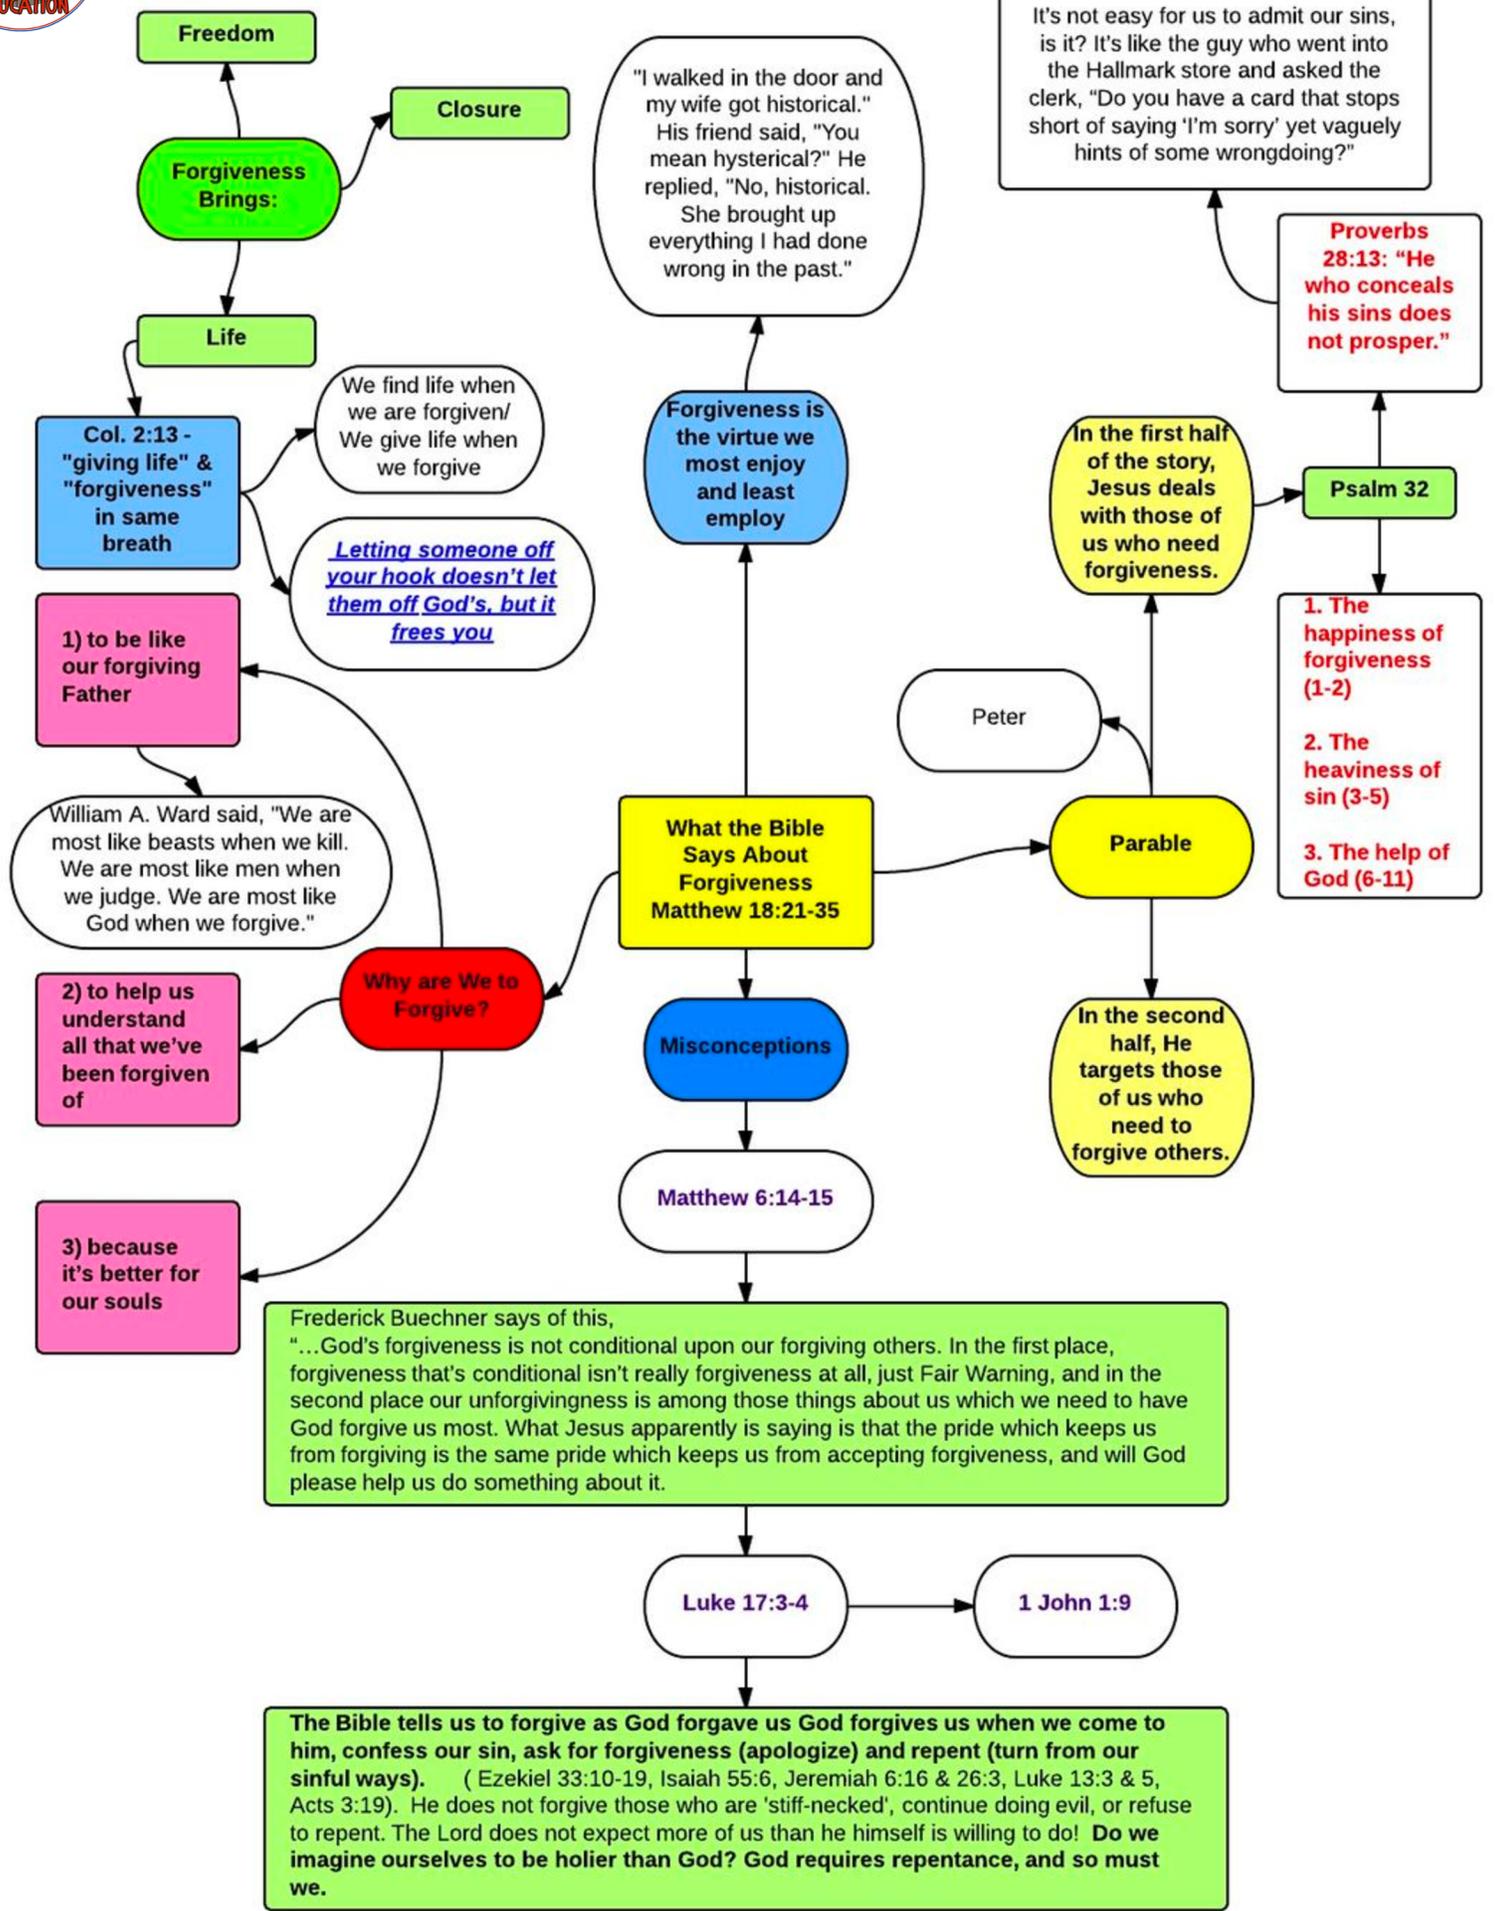

Is it comfortable to knowingly disobey God?

This woman was scorned (teased) by other women, so much so that she avoided them. Do you think she was a "defensive person"?

What does defensive mean?

7 When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, "Will you give me a drink?"

8 (His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.)

9 The Samaritan woman said to him, "You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?" (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.)

10 Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."

11 "Sir," the woman said, "you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water?"

12 Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did also his sons and his livestock?"

Do you remember the parable of the Good Samaritan?
How does Jesus view people?

Did Jesus speak first or did the Samaritan woman speak first?

Was Jesus alone?

How did the Samaritan woman know that Jesus was a Jew?

What does living water mean?

Is Jesus greater than Jacob?

2 Kings 17:29:

This verse marks the first mention of the Samaritans in the Bible, describing how people were resettled in Samaria after the northern kingdom of Israel was conquered.

Luke 10:33:

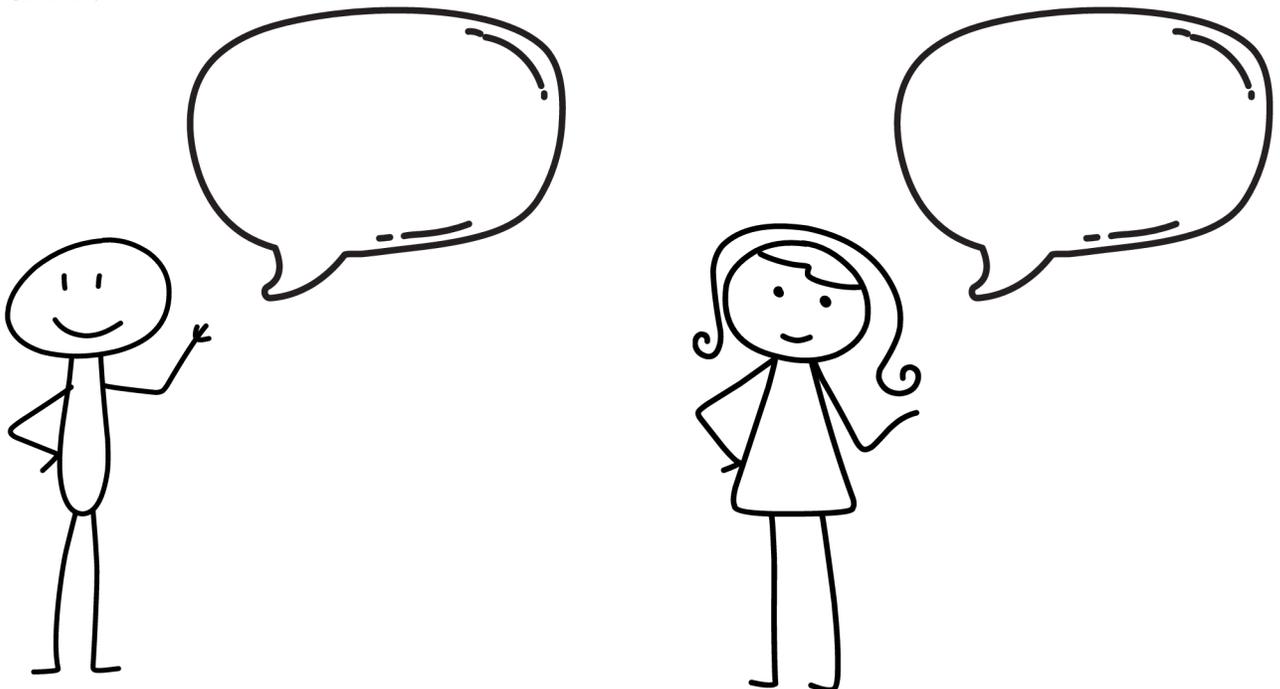

This is the first mention of the term "Samaritan" in the New Testament, within the parable of the Good Samaritan.

John 4:4-42:

This passage details Jesus' encounter with a Samaritan woman at Jacob's well and the subsequent two-day visit to the Samaritan town.

Acts 8:5-25:

This section describes Philip's ministry in Samaria, where many Samaritans, including Simon Magus, believed and were baptized.

13 Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again,

14 but whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

15 The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water so that I won't get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water."

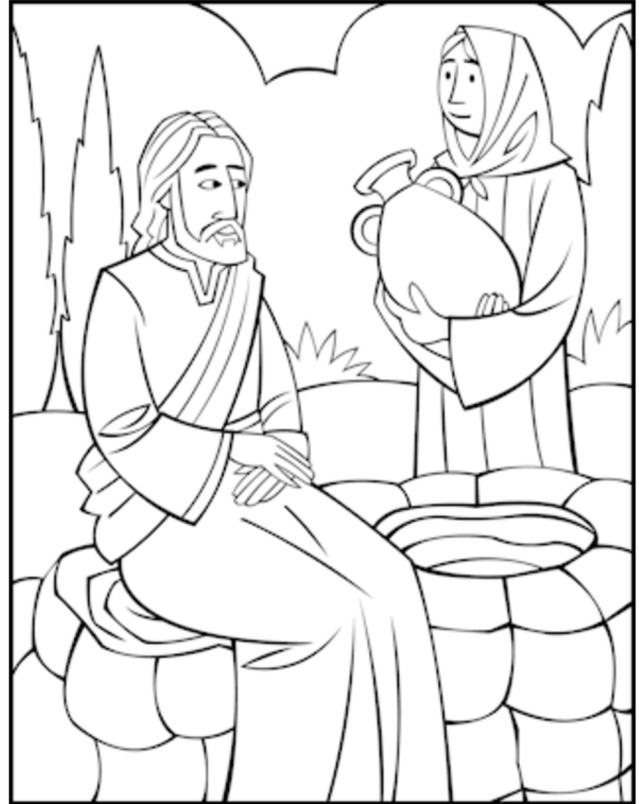

16 He told her, "Go, call your husband and come back."

17 "I have no husband," she replied. Jesus said to her, "You are right when you say you have no husband.

18 The fact is, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have just said is quite true."

19 "Sir," the woman said, "I can see that you are a prophet.

20 Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews claim that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem."

Why did Jesus use water to describe what he can give people?

What does it feel like when you are really thirsty?

Did the woman at the well understand what water Jesus was talking about at first?

What did Jesus prove when he talked about the woman's husbands?

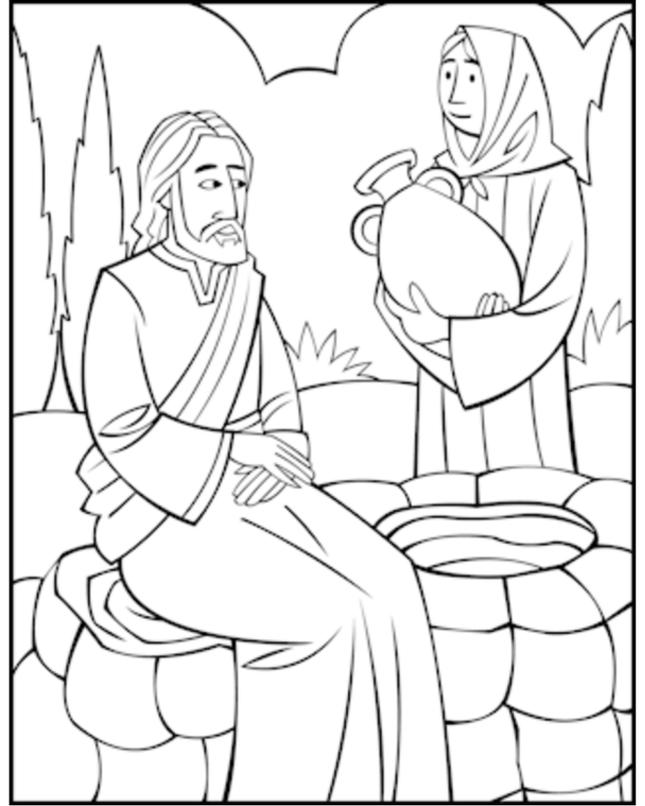

How did that comment impact the woman at the well?

Did she try and start an argument after he exposed her sins?

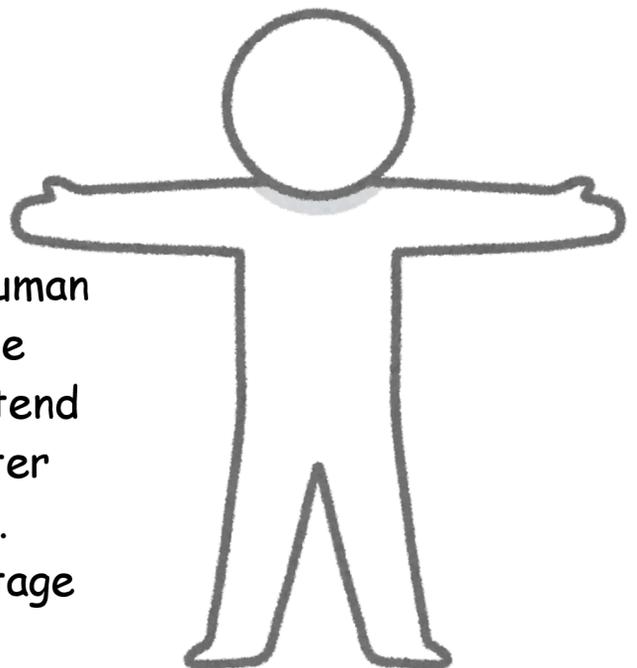

Name: _____

Jesus used water as a metaphor to represent spiritual life, specifically the spiritual refreshment and eternal life that comes from following him and his teachings. He often spoke of himself as "living water," highlighting that he provides the ultimate spiritual nourishment that satisfies a person's deepest needs and leads them to God.

Water is absolutely essential for life. It plays a vital role in numerous bodily functions, from regulating temperature to carrying nutrients, and even protecting vital organs. Without sufficient water intake, the body cannot function properly and serious health issues can arise

Approximately 55% to 78% of the human body is made up of water, with the average being around 60%. Infants tend to have a higher percentage of water (around 78%) compared to adults. Men generally have a higher percentage of water than women.

Name: _____

21 “Woman,” Jesus replied, “believe me, a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

22 You Samaritans worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews.

23 Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks.

24 God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth.”

25 The woman said, “I know that Messiah” (called Christ) “is coming. When he comes, he will explain everything to us.”

26 Then Jesus declared, “I, the one speaking to you—I am he.”

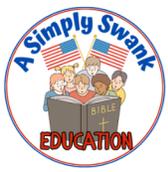

Why did the woman talk about where her people worship?

Have you ever been in trouble and tried to distract your parents?

Did Jesus tell the woman the direct truth?

Where is a good place to worship Jesus?

How did Jesus introduce Himself to the woman at the well?

Circle Mount Gerizim on the map and circle Mount Zion (Jerusalem) on the map

The Samaritan controversy revolves around the location of God's chosen sanctuary.

While Jews consider Jerusalem and Mount Zion as holy, Samaritans believe Mount Gerizim, near Shechem (modern Nablus), is the true temple mount.

This disagreement was a major point of division between the two groups, leading to separate religious practices and identities.

How can you worship Jesus?

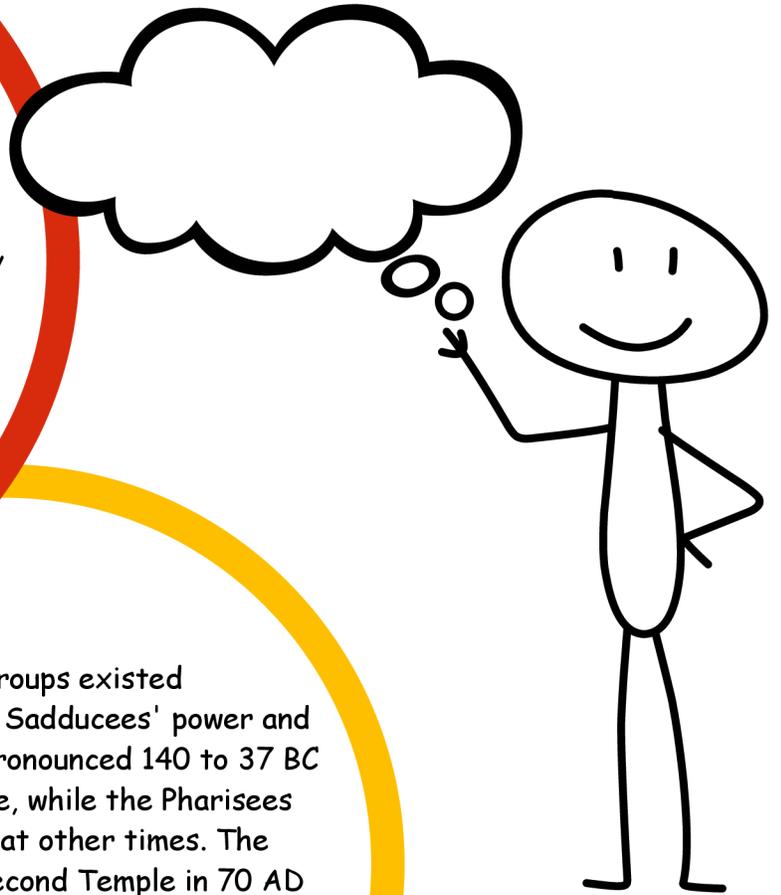

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

The woman's question about worship revolves around the proper location for worship. Jews only worshipped in the temple. Samaritans only worshipped on Mount Gerizim. Jesus explains that, once His mission is complete, that worship will not be confined to any one place on earth.

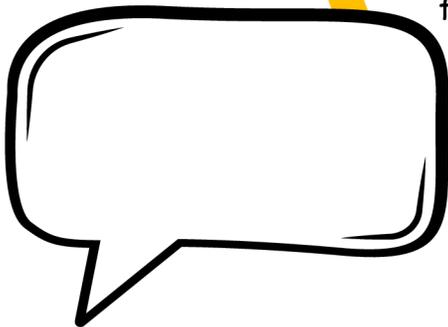

Name: _____

The Pharisees were a prominent Jewish social movement and school of thought during the time of Second Temple Judaism (roughly 516 BC to 70 AD) in the Levant. They were not a geographically confined group, but rather a presence within Jewish society, particularly within synagogues and communities throughout the Holy Land. Their influence extended to how Jews interpreted and applied the Torah in their daily lives.

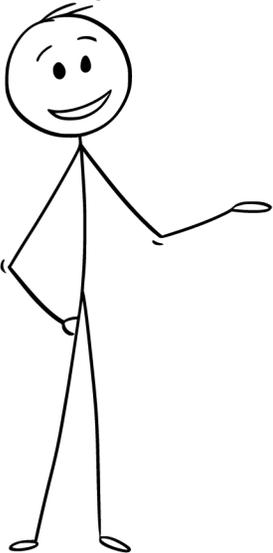

While both groups existed at the same time, the Sadducees' power and influence were more pronounced 140 to 37 BC and under Roman rule, while the Pharisees gained prominence at other times. The destruction of the Second Temple in 70 AD marked the end of the Sadducees' influence, while the Pharisees' teachings and traditions formed the basis of Rabbinic Judaism.

Rabbinic Judaism is the form of Judaism that has been the mainstream tradition since the destruction of the Second Temple in 70 AD. It is based on the teachings and interpretations of the rabbis, who are seen as experts in Jewish law and tradition.

The Sadducees were a prominent group within Jewish society during the Second Temple period (roughly 200 BC to 70 AD), primarily associated with the priestly class and the Temple in Jerusalem. They held significant political and religious influence, serving as the aristocracy and holding positions on the Sanhedrin.

The Disciples Rejoin Jesus

27 Just then his disciples returned and were surprised to find him talking with a woman. But no one asked, “What do you want?” or “Why are you talking with her?”

28 Then, leaving her water jar, the woman went back to the town and said to the people,

29 “Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Messiah?”

30 They came out of the town and made their way toward him.

31 Meanwhile his disciples urged him, “Rabbi, eat something.”

32 But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you know nothing about.”

Jesus' willingness to talk to women, even strangers, was seen as a challenge to ancient Jewish customs. This act displays Jesus' message of love for all people and His wisdom and understanding of His creation.

Jewish law, may have restricted interactions between men and women, especially unmarried women

Did Jesus talking to the Samaritan woman impact the disciples when they returned from getting food? How?

How do you know the Samaritan woman was excited after speaking with Jesus?

What could Jesus mean by saying he had food to eat that the disciples knew nothing about?

Name: _____

33 Then his disciples said to each other, "Could someone have brought him food?"

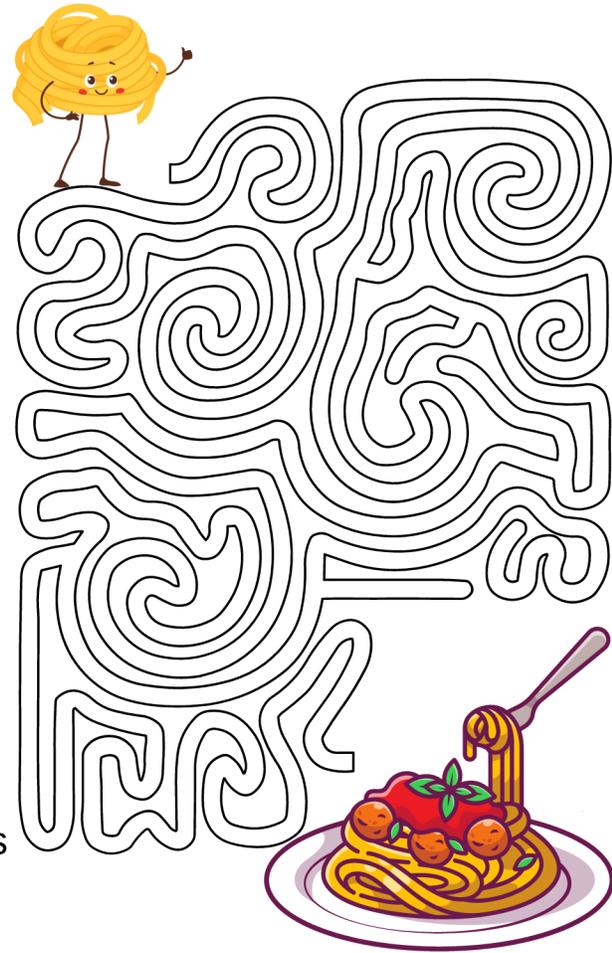

34 "My food," said Jesus, "is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work.

35 Don't you have a saying, 'It's still four months until harvest'? I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest.

36 Even now the one who reaps draws a wage and harvests a crop for eternal life, so that the sower and the reaper may be glad together.

37 Thus the saying 'One sows and another reaps' is true.

38 I sent you to reap what you have not worked for. Others have done the hard work, and you have reaped the benefits of their labor."

Jesus declares that his "food" is to do God's will and finish his work - what do you crave more than food?

Does Jesus compares the spread of the gospel to a harvest?

What does "the fields are ripe for harvest," mean?

How do you know if people are ready to believe and receive the good news?

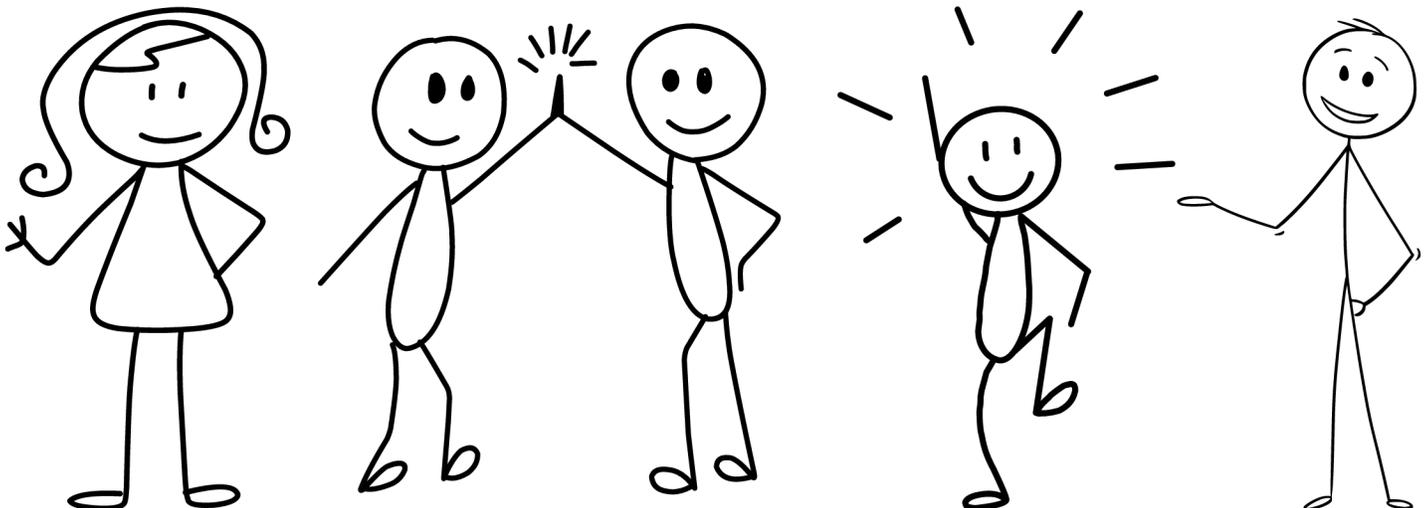

Name: _____

Can one person sow the seed (preach the gospel), and another can reap the harvest (people coming to faith)?

Jesus says the sower and the reaper will rejoice because they have shared in the work of bringing people to eternal life. Is that teamwork?

You might not always see people accept Jesus as their savior when you witness to them, but the seed you plant may grow and another Christian may lead that person to Jesus, you never know. How can you be encouraged by this?

Have you ever played a team sport where you participated in earning points for your team but didn't actually score the point? Could the point have been earned without your participation?

Many Samaritans Believe

39 Many of the Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I ever did."

40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they urged him to stay with them, and he stayed two days.

41 And because of his words many more became believers.

42 They said to the woman, "We no longer believe just because of what you said; now we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man really is the Savior of the world."

What does testimony mean?

Can you share personal experiences, encounters, and reflections of God's work in your life?

Your personal story with Jesus is important - but knowing your Bible when you share with non-believers about Jesus is more important. Does that encourage you to read and study your Bible?

Jesus Heals an Official's Son

43 After the two days he left for Galilee.

44 (Now Jesus himself had pointed out that a prophet has no honor in his own country.)

45 When he arrived in Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him. They had seen all that he had done in Jerusalem at the Passover Festival, for they also had been there.

46 Once more he visited Cana in Galilee, where he had turned the water into wine. And there was a certain royal official whose son lay sick at Capernaum.

47 When this man heard that Jesus had arrived in Galilee from Judea, he went to him and begged him to come and heal his son, who was close to death.

Do you know of anyone who is sick?

Can Jesus heal people who are sick?

Does Jesus always heal people who are sick?

Why doesn't Jesus always heal those we love?

Name: _____

Heaven

God's Will and Purpose:

God's wisdom and love has no boundaries. This even applies to death of a loved one. God always has specific reasons for not healing. We may never know the exact reason, but many times His wisdom includes the need to test someone's faith, allow time for spiritual growth, or encouraging someone to draw closer to Him and give them a greater understanding of His plan.

The Need for a Greater Understanding:

Understanding God's will may require a deeper understanding of His purpose for each person, which is very unique and special. This may not always involve physical healing, but the gift of coming to heaven and having no more pain and enjoying eternal life with Jesus.

Is Heaven a wonderful place?

What does eternity mean?

Can you be excited about Heaven?

Do you know someone who was sick and was healed in a special way?

48 “Unless you people see signs and wonders,” Jesus told him, “you will never believe.”

49 The royal official said, “Sir, come down before my child dies.”

50 “Go,” Jesus replied, “your son will live.”
The man took Jesus at his word and departed.

51 While he was still on the way, his servants met him with the news that his boy was living.

52 When he inquired as to the time when his son got better, they said to him, “Yesterday, at one in the afternoon, the fever left him.”

53 Then the father realized that this was the exact time at which Jesus had said to him, “Your son will live.” So he and his whole household believed.

54 This was the second sign Jesus performed after coming from Judea to Galilee.

How do you think the royal official felt when he heard the news about his son?

Do you look for miracles in your own life?
